AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Dustin Farnum in Cameo Kirby, Presented by the Jesse L Lasky Feature Play Company on Wednesday and

One of the most notable film productions ever made in this country is the picturised version of Cameo Kirby, perhaps the most important Broadway success ever written by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, which is offered by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company, with Dustin Farnum in the title role.

casents which include many exciting adventures.

Cameo Kirby ran for an entire season in New York about two years ago and was regarded at that time as a distinctive departure. In the midst of a flood of realistic dramas this romance of the south, with its gentleman hero whose proclivity for gambling gets him into difficulties, and its lovely heroine who believes in the hero in spite of all temptations to mistrust him, made a mendous sensation. The costumes, spirit of adventure and the entire a spirit of adventure and the entire mosphere of the piece, so successful the stage, are doubly attractive on a screen. The incidents in the story sich could only be described by word mouth in the "legitimate" version of the could only be all shown upon the reen in the minutest detail, with a saith of local color that literally ansports the mind back to the days the maces between the Mississippi

Complete Change of Photoplays Wed nesday-Three Big Features.

In addition to the big Keith vaude-ville attraction there will be a com-plete change of photoplays at the Davis tomorrow, and there will be three two-reel features shown. The sixth chapter of The Diamond from the Sky will be the headline attraction in the pictures, and this chapter is called Shadows at Sunrisa. The following is a brief synopsis of this week's install-ment:

Shadows at Sunriss. The following is a brief synopsis of this week's installment:

Hagar, the gypsy mother, leases Stanley hall, intent on restoring to Esther her birthright. Bether immediately becomes a social favorite. Then comes the great Fairfax tournament. Arthur Stanley as John Powell works as a farmhand, learns of the approaching swent. He borrows his employer's thorroughbred horse and, wearing a black silken mask to hide his features, he returns to ride in the races. The masked rider wins highest honors and crowns Esther "queen of love and beauty." Vivian Marston and Mrs. Stanley ignore the honor bestowed or Hagar's daughter. Then Blair Stanley, in bitter chagrin, betrays Arthur, whom he recognized. In a moment all is contain. "He is Arthur Stanley, wanted for the murder of old Dr. Lee," is fleard on every side as Arthur struggies mally with his captors. The sum of $10,000 is offered for the most suitable suggestion for a sequel to this marrelous photoplay.

HENNIAL CONVENTION

Wrancisco, Aug. 2.—Hope of wfor German and Austrian arms the seas, on land and in the air," voiced here today at the opening the eighth biennial convention of the National German-American Alli-ance by Dr. C. J. Hexamer of Philadelphia president of the organization. The session will continue four days and will be held jointly with the German-American League of California. About 600 delegates registered, representing more than two million members in the United States and territories.

Dr. Hexamer's references to the European war was made in his address after speeches of wolcome by representatives of the city and state.

"Germany is fighting today for the principle which will bring world peace nearer to us than all the efforts of pacificists and dreamers." Dr. Hexamer said. "Germany is fighting for the principle of the open door on the oceans as well as on land. If this principle was to receive general recognition many of the causes for future wars would be eliminated.

"Therefore, hall and victory to German and Austrian arms on the seas, on land and in the air.

"The purpose of this alliance, es-ecially since August 1914, has been one i indly relations between y in: the United States and the har of German-Americans ese riendly relations never ed by the Germans and the local farmers were ordered to proceed with their harvesting. They were told to bring in their grain to designated places, and that the producer of this grain would be permitted to retain one-fifth the remaining going to Germany.

The German troops have been forbidden, these refugees continue, to discuss the war with the people of Windau. The inhabitants of the entire Windau community have been enrolled and at the same time warned that if any men disappears this would be the signal for the destruction of the estate on which he worked. The Germans are said to be showing little respect for the Lettish pastors, many of whohe homes have been looted.

COMMENT ON EMPEROR

William's address to his people on ment today in the French press. The German emperor's assertion that he did not want war evoked again a The Temps says: The emperor dwells longer than usual on ideas of peace."

peace."

The Journal Des Debates remarks:
"Nobody, not even the most neutral of neutrals, will believe that Serbia threatened Austria; that Belgium plotted to humiliate Germany, or that the triple entente prepared ten years for war, for which in the beginning they visibly were lacking in the very arms essential."

Not Tolling the Truth.

Milan, Italy, Aug. 2.—Commenting on Emperor William's address to the German people issued last Saturday the Secolo says:

"To the emperor's oaths of innocence Europe and the whole civilized world already have replied that he is not telling the truth. His troops have so far been conquering because of their superior preparations. He accuses Europe of preparing ten years for war, while Germany for thirty years sharpened her arms for aggression."

TO INSENSATE PRIDE Guglielmo Ferrero, Italian Historia Dissects Cause and Effect.

Dissects Cause and Effect.

Milan, via Paris, Aug. 2, 5:05 p. m.—Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, examining in Secolo the first year of the war, says that it is the greatest tragedy ever experienced by one generation." He attributes it to insensate pride helped by the weakness of governments, bythe powerlessness of parties, by the lightness of public opinion and by the fatuity of the intellectual classes.

"On the council of generals which, presided over by Emperor William, decreed at Potsdam a universal war, on the evening of July 29" he says, "will rest implacable execration throughout the centuries and condemnation in history. Those who with, in an hour took the most inhuman decision recorded in history were able to do so because in the mind of the public, the sense of proportion had been extinguished.

Signor Ferrero thinks that after the catastrophe it will be impossible to reconstruct new order unless "our generation adopt virtues so far neglected; namely, those of humility, firmness, simplicity and a reasonable judgment of life and things.

"This is our duty," he concludes, "to the memory of the millions of the me nwho have fallen in this terrible year while defending Europe and her liberty against German ag-

Pittsuburgh, Pa., Aug. 2—Hundreds of people crowded Highland Park today, while policemen, firemen and water bureau employes worked frantically to save Charles Carpenter, a diver, who was lost in a 51 inch pipe connecting two reservoirs in the park. Carpenter had entered the main just before noon to remove an obstruction and was imprisoned when a cable snapped and the heavy iron door, deep in the water, dropped behind him. Nothing was thought of his absence for an hour, but when he did not respond to signals, another diver went down and found the door closed. The air hose seemed to be intact and the pumps were kept going, while other divers worked to open the door and still others sought for the second entrance to the pipe. Just before 5 o'clock the door was lifted and Carpenter's body was located. He had been dead only a few minutes. His mother and sister were in the growd which west. body was located.
